One day workshop on "Anti-ragging Act" was arranged on 3rd Oct 2015 for the students and staff at College Conference Hall. Aravind Babu (DSP, Rajampet) and his team elaborated the significance & importance of Anti-ragging Act with its various features. They highlighted the various rules in details regarding the anti-ragging schemes.

Ragging is a cognizable offence and is punishable under Law and anyone found guilty of ragging and /or abetting ragging, whether actively or passively, or being a part of a conspiracy to promote ragging, is liable to be punished in accordance with UGC Regulations as well as under the provision of any penal law for the time being in force.

DUTIES OF ANTI-RAGGING SQUAD:

To make surprise raids on hostels and other places vulnerable to incidents of ragging.

To conduct an on the spot enquiry into any incident of ragging referred to it by Head of the Institution, member of faculty, member of staff, any student, any parent or guardian, any employee of service provider or any other person. The enquiry report along with recommendations shall be submitted to anti-ragging committee. The anti-ragging squad shall conduct such enquiry observing a fair and transparent procedure and principle of natural justice and after giving adequate opportunity to the student or students accused of ragging and other witnesses to place before it the facts, documents and views concerning the incident of ragging, and considering such other relevant information as may be required.
